

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dear parents,

We have arrived at the end of another year, and what a year it has been. The contributions of many results in a lot to be grateful for, and many opportunities to build towards. Having the building work finished (it's close Eddie's) has been a significant achievement and relief. The challenges through those building times seem a distant memory, replaced with the satisfaction of having amazing spaces to teach and learn. Another significant chapter-turning moment is the appointment of a principal to each school. The schools remain united under ERSSES and our communities will flourish having their own principal. There are many smaller moments that I will reflect on that are no less significant to me and have profoundly influenced and expanded my vocation – education.

James Clear writes in his book 'Atomic Habits':

"Reflection and review enables the long-term improvement of all habits because it makes you aware of your mistakes and helps you consider possible paths for improvement... Reflection and review ensures that you spend your time on the right things..."

I have a lot to reflect on, many profound moments of learning that have challenged by understanding of education and leadership. I am the fortunate beneficiary of this learning and I owe my growth to the expertise and grace of the staff.

I spoke recently to our communities saying -

The heart and soul of St Edmund's and St Gabriel's is all the staff. It's the staff who turn up every day, with love in their heart, passion for educating, generosity in their efforts and their inclusive care of all our young people - that is what brings St Edmund's and St Gabriel's to life – It's a team effort – teamwork is fundamental to our success. Our success is our students flourishing.

There is a lot going on and this isn't the best time to reflect but I am sure in a few weeks when things settle, I will be overwhelmed with thoughts. One definition of reflection is 'deliberate thought or contemplation'. The goal is not just to dwell on the past, but to gain valuable insights that inform future actions and decisions. My time as ERSSES Principal has been the most profound learning of my career and I thank my generous and patient teachers, the students, staff and parents – thank you!

Wishing you a wonderful Christmas and New Year.

Michael Farrell | Principal

ACTING DEPUTY PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

For Christians, we are now about to enter into the second week of the Season of Advent. Advent comprises the four weeks preceding Christmas. This time enables us to prepare and wait in anticipation for the gift of Jesus which we celebrate at Christmas time. The Seasonal colour for Advent is purple, and I am always reminded of this time in our Church year, thanks to the beautiful splashes of purple found in nature at this present time. The Jacarandas are in bloom, the agapanthus are beginning to open up, plus we have the hydrangeas aplenty in gardens and parklands. It reminds me that God is revealed to us in so many ways, and at this time of year, we see God in our natural surrounds – the colour purple is so beautifully highlighted and identified, in and amongst the green.

And so, in the busy-ness of our lives that generally occurs at this time of year, let us focus on the key messages that Advent brings: that of joy, peace, hope, faith and love. And let us take note of God's presence in all creation.

Happy Hanukkah!

Just as Christians celebrate the coming of Christmas through the Season of Advent, our Jewish friends have also entered a special and significant festival, that of Chanukah which began on the 7th December. Chanukah is the Jewish eight-day, "festival of lights," celebrated with a nightly menorah lighting, special prayers and blessings, as well as the enjoyment of special foods. The Hebrew word Chanukah means "dedication," and is thus named because it celebrates the rededication of the Holy Temple.

Wahroonga Village Fair

Thank you to Teena, Athena, Mikayla, Daena, Mark and Dominic who represented the school at last weekend's Wahroonga Village Fair. They performed four wonderful items for the audience gathered, and were well supported by their families and staff. Thank you to Mrs Eldridge, Ms Cox, Mrs Gross and Mrs Dickenson for allowing this opportunity to occur for the students!

ACTING DEPUTY PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Thank you for your support!

Thank you to those who have supported our College community throughout the year with generous donations and offers of support. Our very own Susan Dickenson has worked closely with many people over the course of the year, to create partnerships that benefit the students and the learning we are able to provide here at St Edmund's with the purchasing of specialised resources. We are grateful for the thoughtfulness that is expressed by so many people!

End of Year Mass and Farewell to Year 12 Students

Thank you to Terry O'Keefe for organising a beautiful liturgical celebration for us all to enjoy as a whole school today. It was lovely having Fr Kelvin join us for this occasion; an occasion that allowed us to reflect on the year that has been, to give thanks for the positive connections that have been formed and to congratulate and farewell our graduating students in Year 12.

Thank You and Farewell to...

It is at this time of year, that we have also had the opportunity to thank and farewell some key community members: Claudia Cannane (Year 11J), Mrs Janine Eastham, Mr Craig Weismantel and Ms Vivienne Gilkes.

Claudia is finishing her time with us at St Edmund's this year, as she prepares to move with her family to Singapore. This is a massive loss for us as a community, but it is such an exciting opportunity for her. Claudia has demonstrated growth, maturity, friendship and commitment to her learning throughout her time with us. She even initiated a wonderful fundraiser to bring awareness to the role that UNICEF plays in supporting those children in our world who are in need of help. Congratulations Claudia on all you have demonstrated throughout your time at Eddie's! We wish you all the best, and thank you for all you have contributed. You will be greatly missed!

We thank and farewell Janine, who has been the Parent Group Leader for the past four years. Janine has played an important role in maintaining opportunities for parents and carers to come together at regular Parent Group Meetings, social events and information evenings. She has provided pastoral support to new families, as well as families experiencing challenging times. She has worked closely with the School Executive Team, and has overseen the wonderful work of the Class Parents, too. Janine will be dearly missed and we thank her for all she has contributed and generously provided throughout her time with us. We wish you, Tom and your family every best blessing.

We also thank Craig, who has been an integral part of the St Edmund's staff for the past two years, installing and upgrading our ICT infrastructure in readiness for our newly completed school. He is never without a smile and is always willing to assist and support us however he can. Craig has a wonderful rapport with our students, and is often seen engaging with them whether he is on duty during break times, or walking around the school. He has immersed himself completely within our community and he will be dearly missed. We wish Craig every best blessing as he takes on a new role in the Parramatta Diocese Catholic Schools Office in ICT Support.

And, last but not most definitely not least, we thank and farewell Viv. Viv has been an incredible teacher and Executive Team member here at St Edmund's for the past 10 years. Her advocacy for our students, support for families and expert guidance for staff has been invaluable. She has initiated several whole school programs that continue to benefit all students, in particular the introduction of the Liberate Team. This Team focuses on curriculum development and delivery that is innovative, contextual and transformational for our students in their learning journey. The impact of these programs can be seen in classrooms and throughout the school each day. While Viv's knowledge and professionalism have been exceptional contributions to our school community, it is her genuine care and desire for each of our students to achieve their best which will be missed the most. This, along with her dedication and incredible skillset, will be greatly missed. We know that Viv will continue to experience success in her new role as Head of Careers Education and Post-School Opportunities at Abbotsleigh and we wish her every best blessing.

And, to all of you as you make your way towards the joy of this Christmas Season and the promise of a New Year, I wish you a safe, happy and holy holiday break! We look forward to seeing you return in 2024, and pray that you peace of our Lord's birth be with you.

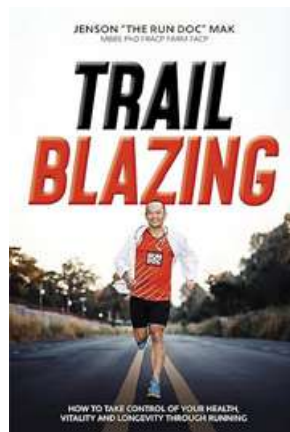

Trailblazing

Jenson Mak (college parent - Johann's dad) has written an exciting and inspirational book;

"Trailblazing is about the ultimate (and unlikely) transformation of 'The Fat Doc' (overweight, chocoholic, middle-aged man who couldn't even outrace his 8-year-old daughter), who upon discovering an epiphany that he DID wish to live longer to see his then "newborn" third child grow up, and not succumb to a family history of premature heart attacks, embarked on a journey of healthy discovery. This journey has led to a radical transformation to become the Run Doc through a newfound passion for running."

You can purchase this book through Amazon or through the website - where you can use the special discount code EDDIES10. It is also available on Kindle at a special introductory price of $3.99.

An audiobook will be made available in the near future.

"Over a lifetime of running, I've pretty much seen it all. The highs of Olympic and World Championship glory; the lows of devastating injury, disappointment, and failure; forging lifelong friendships and bonds just through running together; and the loneliness of having to struggle by yourself; and especially the pride and self-worth that comes from achieving the simple but difficult. All these insights and emotions are covered in this humanistic, scientific, inspiring, and honest read. Congratulations, Jenson, for sharing your story, because running is not a sport; it's a lifestyle, and the marathon a journey of liberation and self-discovery that we all should go on. I know this book will inspire many to have the courage to try."

ROBERT DE CASTELLA
AO MBE, Australian former world champion marathon runner and Olympian

"Jenson's infectious charisma and encouraging personality are like a second wind to any burgeoning runner. His personal journey to health through running is nothing short of inspirational."

STAFF VS YEAR 12 CRICKET / MR FARRELL FAREWELL

How do you farewell a valued principal, teacher, friend and integral member of our Eddie's community? With a unique send-off involving a friendly round of modified cricket where the staff vs the Year 12 students (cheered on by all the college staff and students). Despite a valiant effort, (including a dexterous dive roll!!) Mr Michael Farrell's staff team were unable to defeat our mighty senior students, but he is still a winner in our eyes. Mr Farrell was gifted with some one-of-a-kind items to remember us by – a cricket bat signed by all staff and students and an urn of ashes (made up of burnt timbers salvaged from the old build) – in honour of his favourite sport, cricket, and the work he did in bringing Eddie's into the future with the new build. It's not goodbye, but see you soon – with Mr Farrell taking up an exciting promotion in 2024 as the Regional Director of EREA Flexible Schools NSW/Tasmania – including overseeing St Edmund's College.

WELLBEING

For the End of the School Year

*As the school year draws to a close, let's celebrate how much we've grown.
Through challenges faced and lessons learned, new friendships blossomed, knowledge earned. Take a moment to reflect and see, the progress made, how we've come to be.*

*Embrace the achievements, both big and small,
each step forward, we gave our all.*

Now's the time to rest and unwind, recharge the spirit, nurture the mind.

Find joy in moments of leisure and play, revitalize before a new journey's day.

With gratitude for the year behind, let's cherish memories, keep them in mind.

Here's to wellness, here's to cheer, for a bright future, drawing near.

The end of this chapter, a fresh start in sight, to our wellbeing, let's hold on tight.

Let summer's warmth bring peace and cheer, happy hearts as we bid farewell this year.

The approach of school holidays and leaving school can evoke a mix of emotions, often intertwined with both anticipation and anxiety. Change, whether in routine, environment, or support systems, can stir up a whirlwind of emotions. Transitioning from the structured school schedule to the less predictable holiday routine can be challenging, triggering feelings of uncertainty and unease.

Navigating these emotions requires patience, understanding, and sometimes additional support.

Providing a stable and supportive environment, offering reassurance, and facilitating a smooth transition can significantly alleviate the anxiety associated with change, empowering individuals to embrace the upcoming holidays with a sense of optimism and excitement.

Some Ideas for Helping Families in Need This Christmas

Salvation Army

The Salvation Army has two main initiatives running over Christmas.

First they've set up a Christmas appeal so people can donate money online to support families facing homeless. The charity has also partnered with Kmart for it's Wishing Tree appeal, so individuals can donate physical gifts in-store, or monetary ones online.

The Smith Family

The Smith Family help young Australians living in poverty, and supporting their education to help them unlock their potential. They've set up an online Christmas appeal, which is currently taking online donations. A gift can be a monthly amount, or one-off.

<https://www.thesmithfamily.com.au/christmas-charity>

The Red Cross has also set up its Christmas appeal and are asking for donations.

The not-for-profit estimates almost a quarter of older Australians feel lonely some or most of the time, with the festive period marking one of the hardest times. Money donated to the appeal will go towards supporting the isolated elderly with the “gift of friendship”.

Barnados Australia

Children’s charity Barnados Australia aims to break the cycle of disadvantage, providing support for vulnerable kids and young people. It has set up a Christmas appeal, and is asking for donations to help children affected by domestic violence find safety.

CURRICULUM CHAT

Semester 2 Reports

Reports for each student in years 7-11 will be published on Sentral Parent Portal on Friday 8th December at 5pm. These reports give an overview of your child's learning and progress this semester.

Reports give parents a holistic view of their child's development at the College in the curriculum areas, as well as in social and transition skills. You will find that your child's homeroom teacher has made a comment on their overall progress through Semester 1 as well as their assessment of certain social and transition skills. Subject teachers will report on a selection of tasks that students have completed, by no means a complete list, but one intended to give you an overview of classroom activities. Subject teachers also report on the overall achievement of a student in the class.

I encourage you to read these reports with your children, and help them reflect on the progress and achievements they have made in Semester 2.

If you would like to request a printed copy of your child's report, please contact Louise Drescher at drescher@stedmunds.nsw.edu.au.

The Parent Portal user guide is attached to this newsletter. There are new links to access the Parent Portal. New users can register at <https://stedmunds.sentral.com.au/portal/register> and current parent portal users can login at <https://stedmunds.sentral.com.au/portal/login/>. FROM THE PARENT GROUP

Well that's a wrap. 2023 at St Edmund's has come to an end. It has been a year full of learning, excursions, community involvement, parent meetings, world teachers day and of course Eddie's Big Night. A year truly filled with the spirit of St Edmund's.

St Edmund's has a wonderful parent and carer community. Before we even know each other we have a bond that unites us in a way that is hard for others to understand. We are fiercely supportive of one another and each other's children. We get to the real matters quickly. And we are open to new ideas and learnings.

I encourage you all to attend and participate in all the College has on offer. Be it parent meetings, information nights with guest speakers or fundraising activities. There is something to gain for everyone who attends, it can be information or parent connection.

Farewell to our Year 12 students and families and also any other families leaving this year. Your future is bright. We wish you success and happiness and we look forward to hearing about life after Eddies.

Farewell to our Principal Michael Farrell. We give him our best wishes as he embarks on his new role. Thank you for your time here with us.

I would like to thank on behalf of the Parent Group to all the staff at St Edmunds for your continuous support and encouragement as you teach and prepare our children to navigate their path in this world. Your dedication and commitment is appreciated.

Finally thank you to the parent and carer community who supported the parent group through attendance of meetings, as class parent representatives or volunteering at one of our events. Together we can achieve great things for our school and for our children.

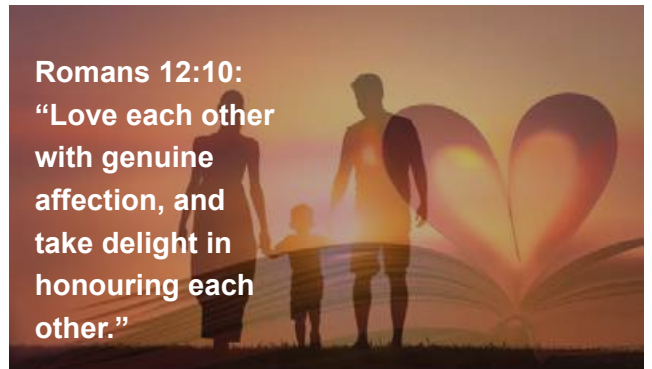

This is my last year as Parent Group Leader and as a parent at St Edmund's. My husband Jeff and I are truly grateful for the opportunities St Edmund's have given our son Tom and the support Eddie's has given us as parents. Thank you to the parent community for giving me the opportunity to be a leader of such an amazing group of people. I have always seen the word "leader" as just a title. I am the same as you all, a parent of a special needs child. Any group needs someone to represent it and I thank you for the opportunity to do that. I have grown as a parent through hearing and sharing your journeys. It has been an absolute privilege to get to know you all. Thank you for your support, I will miss being a part of such a wonderful community. Tom is keen to see what lies ahead for him. I think that means that Eddie's has set him up well to face that giant world out there. I wish you all the best for your journeys with your children.

Wishing you all much joy and blessings for Christmas and best wishes to all of your family's for peace, love and hope for a bigger and brighter 2024.

Braille by Luca

I am Luca Weber, I am a previous St Edmund's student. I would like to wish everyone at the college a Merry Christmas and a Very Happy New Year!

I am blind and Mr Borkowski taught me how to read and write Braille at St Edmund's. I have started a microenterprise, "Braille By Luca", in which I create and sell customised brailled greeting, birthday and Christmas cards, which can be read by everyone - also those who do not know how to read Braille.

Just in case any students, parents or staff at St Edmund's are interested in buying some very unique, beautiful, tactile Christmas Cards with custom text messages, which are fun to read, here is a link, where the cards can be bought: braillebyluca.bigcartel.com
